

Info box

Institute for Japan Cultural Exchange and Experience

Various experience programs organized here are aimed at Japanese and non-Japanese alike learning together about Japanese culture and interacting with each other. You will attend some of their programs dressed in a Kimono, such as their "Learning Tea Ceremony in English", "Yukata-fitting and Japanese Paper-craft/Origami experience" programs and so on.

www.ijcee.com

For more information, call Yonehara on 090-1607-5099 or Kikuchi on 080-3313-1107.

Alternately, you can e-mail to: info@ijcee.com

Japanese Culture Visit

Participants can try Kimono-fitting, choosing from nearly 100 Kimonos which include Uchikaké (bridal gown), gorgeous Furisodé, and Monn-tsuki Hakama (a set of crested Haori and Hakama, the divided skirt, worn together as formal attire). After the Kimono-fitting experience, a presentation will be given on etiquette featuring the rules and customs relating to the rituals, legal institutions and proprieties of Buké society (the warrior class).

www.japanese-culture-visit.com

For more information, call 03-5450-3969 or e-mail to: info@japanese-culture-visit.com

Tsujiya (Shin-naka flagship store)

Situated in the Shin Nakamisé arcade in Asakusa, Tsujiya's Shin-naka flagship store stocks a wide selection of Geta soles in larger sizes for non-Japanese. (Prices start from 2,000 yen.) You can also have a pair of Geta made to measure, with soles and thongs of your own choice. (The service charge starts from 5,000 yen.)

1-28-8 Asakusa, Taito-ku, Tokyo 111-0032

For more information, call 03-3844-1321

Opening hours: 10am-7pm (7 days a week)

For more on how to find Kimono in Tokyo check out the following blog:
<http://samuraigeisha.blogspot.com>